SUBJECT: Appointment of New Member to the Pennsylvania Judicial Conduct Board

HARRISBURG, June 4, 2009 – The Judicial Conduct Board of Pennsylvania announces the appointment by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court of new member, the Honorable Christine L. Donohue. Judge Donohue was elected to the Superior Court in November 2007. Her chambers are in Pittsburgh.

Judge Donohue is a former judge on the statewide Pennsylvania Court of Judicial Discipline, a former chair of the Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners and she served for six (6) years on the Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Prior to taking the bench, Judge Donohue was listed in Best Lawyers in America, Pennsylvania Super Lawyers and the Top 50 Attorneys in Pittsburgh. She has been twice recognized, most recently in 2008, in Pennsylvania Law Weekly as one of the State's "Women Leaders in the Legal Profession".

Judge Donohue taught ethics for attorneys at the Duquesne University School of Law.
